

november news

Registrations are already rolling in from all over Australia. Paper flyers are being sent out to all groups Australia wide over the next few months, but you can get an electronic copy from www.melbourne2012.org or email julie@melbourne2012.org.

Accommodation options have already been released, and within a ten minute walk of the venue there are seven hotels and serviced apartments who have negotiated special rates for us - details on our website and the registration form. Also, for those on a budget, there are a large number of backpackers and low price options in the area - search online for details!

4 easy ways to help:

- 1) Forward this newsletter onto your AA buddies here and abroad!
- 2) Register early- catch the early bird rate prior to December 31st
- 3) "Like" us on Facebook
- 4) Help us carry the message to your home group and local fellowship..

Hurry - only 5 weeks to register online until the special $95 5-day early bird ends on 31st December. Have a concession card? ... if so, a reduced registration rate will be available at the event.

12

MELBOURNE

A DESIGN FOR LIVING

NATIONAL CONVENTION 2012

The Australia-wide fellowship of Al-Anon family groups, including Alateen, is pleased to participate in the 2012 National AA Convention in Melbourne. Come and celebrate 55 years of fellowship in Australia. Be part of this fantastic milestone. Alateen, for younger family members, will have their own space in the program. See you there for fun and fellowship.

There's so much happening over the Easter weekend in Melbourne, why not make a holiday of it all!

Follow us on your favourite social media:

 @melbourne2012

 melbourneAA2012

5-9th April

www.melbourne2012.org

info@melbourne2012.org

+61 414 936 832

GPO Box 2472

Melbourne Vic 3000 Australia